Keep quiet sweetheart dont say another word, let your body do all the talking and let mine take yours for granted. because im thinking the worst and you brought this on yourself my heart is beating quick but your hands their moving quicker, their moving. and girl what are you starving for? my attention is already yours.

and when i said girls like you, they dont get second chances i was lying, youve been getting undeserving, third and fourth chances at that. so baby cross your fingers and say a prayer cause i dont know, i dont know if he'll even, i dont know if he'll even forgive you. and if its love that you want, i'd trade you love for five bucks
