Sri-Lanka
You are my Shangri-La
Hidden in the sun
Recalling the land of my roots
When my life began.

Sri-Lanka
You are my Shangri-La
From this moment on
Take me away in dreams to the Place I've been born
Recall all my memories
That nearly have been gone

I say hey
This place I wanna stay
Me and my baby
I'm sure I don't mean maybe today.
I say oh

Wish all my old friends would know

I'm almost in heaven

Sri-Lanka so don't let me go
Oh no.

Sri-Lanka you are my Shangri-La

A golden memory.
Paradise
Regained in the sun
Where I've found my key

Sri-Lanka I'll speak your sinala
From this moment on and let me keep Pretending you're the isle where I've been born
Secret paradise
For dreamers like me on the run.
