I'm looking out the window
And i'm looking to the sky
I trying to remember
The last time you and i
I'm not very suprised
That's all that i can say
Prepare myself for this
You find another way

Her head was arragend for halloween
She told all her problems they're not interesting
Every time with her was a fucking hell
I think she use a very moudly shower gel

I'm looking out the window
And i'm looking to the sky
Maybe she is angry,
Because i said goodbye
I said that i left her
But she didn't cry
Maybe she is happy now
Maybe she know why
