"Dog Of Reverie"

It seems so strange
I finally found a window
Are dreams to change
I blindly reach for rainbows
Or be deranged
Holding on but let go

Bit by the dog of reverie
Life has now declined
It's much too late for apathy
In a conscience state of mind
And you will never understand
Cause you're too scared to try
To experience the upperhand
That taught me how to fly
As we all die

No place on Earth
To free me from my withdrawals
I face rebirth
If I can't walk then I'll crawl

I finally found a window
