"Twisted And Fallen"

I'm twisted I'm so Twisted
I've fallen down

My mind will not break
It will only bend
To the circle of frustration
I am trapped within
Twisted and fallen

Dizzy from flying
But I can't stop trying
To find my way out
Win a war on my own

Wish my ambition
Could kill my addiction
Slowly I'm crawling
To Earth and it's stone

Mine eye's consume
What's faded away
The hunger to live
Can only feed me today
Delivered to Hell
Who welcomes me
The insight on rage
Or it's outcome to see

Angered and triggered
My feelings disfigured
Could I be of madness
If I'm not afraid
