"Possum"

words i've never said are knocking on my bedroom door pick the lock sing glory glory hallelujah songs i've never sung are underneath my kitchen floor stick around and let the shards go slicing through you you never know who's watching you never know who's waiting you never know you never know you never know all i know is i'm not up for anything today so be it-wrap the blanket round my feet let me sleep here in the street i'm playing possum now words i've never said are crissing crossing through my brain stretching out like some sedated superhighway songs i've never sung are sitting broken in the rain i've messed it up you know at least i've done it my way you never know

traps i've never set are sitting around my feet excuse me if i do not kiss your lily ass
