You only walk the earth because they're sick of you in hell
The serpents behind their walls
The Judas of them all
And the serpent holds the truth
But the truth will never be told I can tell you are trying to make me believe in your artificial grin
You prey on the innocent, leaving the guilty to walk without consequence
Return to the filth that you once called home This world has nothing for a heart that has never felt a beat
The hands of the righteous are pulling you under And the lies of a past filled with hate will finally be revealed
We cannot wait to see you fall
Eradicate
