The road that I was driving down it ran away
All this mister action I lost out of place
The feelings fade to black as I dreamt from day to day
It's funny how back there I've dreamt to find the way
When it all came true there's nothing left to hold on
To
All I can do

Just be strong
Just be strong
With every breath we take until they're gone
Be strong
Just be strong
'Cause in the end it's about where we belong
Forever strong

Had it been that long since the last time I saw
The man I see there in the mirror I never knew I at all
Can I take this life and somehow make it alright
Tonight

Just be strong
Just be strong
With every breath we take until they're gone
Be strong
Just be strong
'Cause in the end it's about where we belong

Help me now I'm coming round.
Help me now I wanna make
Ooh everything we are, gotta find a way
Coming round I'm trying now
Coming now carry me
A new day, new life
Carry me away

So close your eyes when you feel this sting
In the end believe in this one thing

Just be strong
Just be strong

With every breath we take until they're gone
Be strong
Just be strong
'Cause in the end it's about where we belong where we Belong
Forever strong

[Solo]

Just be strong
Just be strong
With every breath we take until they're gone
Be strong
Just be strong
'Cause in the end it's about where we belong
Forever strong
