i love the world believe it would be boundless possibilities simply sound that shines a pro personified

and i know the single word touches every emotion give me hope and symphony believe

it would be without it believe be it without mediocrity we believe we would fly thing you hold back and you judge the sky the day is long and time is tough and every single one of us thought of giving up and my darkest hour comes that would comes to me

such a life we're more than strong you take a fall and you stand and you are gone and you yes you will change your destiny
i believe

listen to the simply sound everybody's feeling the power you can hear it in the voice that will sing
put your hands together and say believe and you let yourself go
you got to believe

tell me do you believe yes you know that i believe in this wonderes opportunity there's so much to this life its all before you now taking stride every day we're wide from these streets

oh i believe
