Woke up today, thinking of you
Another night and i made my way through
So many dreams still left in my mind
But it can never come true

I press rewind and remember when
I close my eyes and I'm with you again
But in the end I can still feel the pain
Everytime I hear your name

Chorus:

The sun won't shine since you went away
Seems like the rains falling everyday,
There's just one heart, where there once was two
That's the way it's gotta be, until I get over you
[You...]

Walk through the park in the evening air
I heard a voice and I thought you were there
I ran away, but I just can't escape
Memories of you everywhere

They say the time will dry the tears
That true love burns for a thousand years
Give my tomorrows for one yesterday
Just to know that I could have you here

Chorus:

The sun won't shine, since you went away
Seems like the rains falling everyday
There's just one heart, where there once was two
That's the way it's gotta be, until I get over you
[Till I get over you...]

When will this river of tears stop falling
Where can I run so i won't feel alone
I can't walk away when the pain keeps calling
Just gotta take it from here on my own
But it's so hard to let go.....
[Oh no no no]
[Oh no no]

Chorus:

The sun won't shine, since you went away

Seems like the rains falling everyday

There's just one heart, where there once was two

That's the way it's gotta be, until I get over you

[You.....]

[You.....]

Thats the way its gotta be until i get over you

[Until i get over....you.....]
