"The Way To Myself"

Tomorrow never knows, hardly I found
In the shadow of your eye
Blossoms of my pain, ever lasting tears
Weaving to my heart so blue

Smile again is hard, not I am strong
You're always with cause my pain
But never out of my sight, live inside of me
I can't afford you all but to tell you
My dreams come true, I trust myself

Look into my eyes, weeping alone is cold
Never live in yesterday
I will do my best, free myself and you
I'll never fall in love because your eyes tell
Sun will shine, I will be myself and then bring you more

Remember I will call you and myself
When my wish come true
Heart of gold and I will tell "I love you"
