"Beyond The Veil"

Who are they? They talk like no one else can hear them
What they say could make an imprint on your mind
Don't you know that I could see the very day I met you
The people that look past your heart are blind

Your intentions are better than they've all expected
All you want is to make other people glad You make mountains out of molehills in the greatest way
Now gray and cloudy days don't seem so bad

You can hear the world
Tell you who to be
Don't let people try to change the way that you're thinking
They don't know a thing (repeat)
