Yeah, Yeah

Yeah

I don't miss you (burp)

Imma dismiss you

Imma kiss you, next time I see you

It's true

Give all your lovin', give all your war

I don't need much of that

No, no, Imma be alright, Imma be alright

Seventeen, hero beauty queen introduced to me

She in the Hollywood scene

Moved to Cali from NYC

It's been eight months and she ain't happy

A couple shots of Patron, she eased the pain

Chased it with some Jack just to smile again

The everyday routine

That broken teen who left her heart close to where she left her dreams

Hidden tucked away so far now they missing

I took her hand and said baby listen

For every moment you waste, there's another right behind it to take its place

Cause life goes on when it ain't so sweet don't give up on me get back on your feet

If you can take another breath you gon' be okay just smile, forget yesterday

Give all your lovin', give all your war

I don't need much of that

Cause all i need is a bag of weed and a lazy susan, so I can watch my tv

In the mall's where i met her wearing a brown sweater

she said she had her man but i said i could do it better my name is Shwayze, she responded with im Loretta what a beautiful name, she said what beautiful game one conversation lead to another was under some drinks, now we fking each other.

Constant sex turn to constant text saying how much she missed me wishing she could be with me damn, I made her cheat on her man what makes me think she won't be cheating again I just said never mind, yeah I miss you too give me a sec and I roll on through days turn to week, now holding hands and kissing cheeks using nicknames, spittin' game is obsolete damn, don't do to me what you did before I just kept my mouth shut and we  some more

Yeah

Give all your lovin', give all your war
I don't need much of that
Cause all i need is a bag of weed
and lazy susan lying right here next to me

I've given too many chances two exotic dancers Asking too many questions and receiving no answers Investing my finances on pills for enhancement Even got some facial cream so they could think I was handsome Now, tell me that ain't insecurrrre Yeah, you're right Kanye but how am i gonna fk her?
It seems nowadays that's our only motive and we're going to the first date without a trojan

Give all your lovin', give all your war
I don't need much of that
No no, Imma be alright, Imma be alright
Cause all i need is a bag of weed
a lazy susan, so I can watch my tv Lazy susan lying right here next to me lying right here next to me
lying right here next to me
lying right here next to me
lying right here next to me
