Have you ever had the feeling
That there's something wrong
The feeling that the world can not be
What is shown to us
You think you're free,
But in reality you are bound
Bound to fetters
From cradle to grave

Day by day

We get stronger
Feeling that
We are not in control

They control
What you see
What you hear
What you feel

Day by day

We get stronger
Feeling that
We are not in control

Our universe is a Dream
Dreamed inside a machine
Eternally chasing
The meaning of itself

They control us
Broadcasting
From a spaceship
It's big, and it's cloaked,
We know it as moon

There the masters, Aliens,
Make us do their will
Their cost:
Blood and sweat

They manipulated
Our DNA
And tried to hinder our
Soul's freedom.

They control
What you see
What you hear
What you feel

We are the children of the Matrix,
Our only hope is
To deny ourselves,
Centering upon
Inerself
Releasing the consciousness
To fly
And awake

TV, newspapers, movies
And advertising too
They choose what will be better
To Shape your point of view

They divided us in groups
To better dominate
Shaped us in many races
And many religions
Shuffled our languages
Into a babel of tongues

They control
What you see
What you hear
What you feel

Day by day

We get stronger

Feeling that
We are not in control

We are the children of the Matrix,
Our only hope is
To deny ourselves,
Centering upon
Inerself
Releasing the consciousness
To fly

And awake
