Two thousand years of a lie,
How many more you'll have to cry,
How many else will burn till die...

Your suffering must end right now,
Just wake up you're not a pawn,
Try to scape the chains of sin...

Don't bow down to any false gods,
If they make you kneew they're a lie,
Don't bow down to any false gods,
If it make you suffer, call them "Dark Gods"

Don't swallow what they told
They made up to get your soul
Stand tight and think by yourself
This life is yours for you win.

Don't bow down to any false gods,
If they make you kneew they're a lie,
Don't bow down to any false gods,
If it make you suffer, call them "Dark Gods"
