Dresden the mighty venice of north
Architetural beauty all around.
Second world war menaced it's borders
Untouched by bombs right until than

February nineteen forty five
Bombers violated that incredible town
Firestorms burn all right to the ground
Burn into flames, no mercy was shown

Dresden
A crime for human race
Dresden
Death was at all places
Dresden
A crime for human race
Dresden
Please don't forget

Allies showed their slaught power,
Men, Women and children was slaught at that night,
Only the beginning of cold war times,
The worse was just about to come...

A crime for human race
Dresden
Death was at all places
Dresden
A crime for human race
Dresden
Please don't forget
