Lago di bolsena
thought about leaving today driving down to the lake
the lakeside it is black I'll be coming back
but please don't ask me
why or where or when you're looking beautiful today nothing else matters anyway
the lakeside it is black
well be coming back
why or where or when

Im here to stay
what can I say
all that is left decays Im here to say
why don't you stay
it's beautiful
drifting away
a single note rings on and on and on the lake called us today no use to refuse this anyway the lakeside still is black we wont be coming back

but please don't ask me
why 'cause you're my friend

what can I say
Im here to say
why don't you stay
it's beautiful
drifting away

the wind rips our sails were drifting away

all that decays
will be here one day

why don't you stay
it's beautiful
drifting away
