In world war two
At the nineteen fortys
Germany was ahead
At their time in science

They had fighter jets
They had the Horton wing
They had V rockets
And teleguided pilots

Secret weapons
Hidden technology
We have the right
To know all that were in it

They had sintetic blood
They had Tree oh six five
They had Zuse computer
And the foo fighters

They had ways to stop engines,
They had death rays.
They had lasers,
They had flying saucers,

German scientists
Were a valious spoil of war
Countries fought
To get them working again

At the end of war
It's patents were stolen
Were distributed
Between the greedy allies

Secret weapons
Hidden technology
We have the right
To know all that were in it
