Staring at the wavelength
At my disposal
Hoping one day
I just may get a little closer
Sultry nights full of fright
I try to sleep in four leaf-clover
Soft soap me down in your coma
Sweetchestnut with a heavenly soma
For my whole life I was a loner
But now I am a roamer
To where the sky is blue
To where the sky is blue
Sailing the seven seas
You hardly get the chance to ski
You can change your homes one thousand times
Still your problems roam
Like a huge waves foam
Always following you
To where you're all alone
Soft soap me down in your coma
Sweetchestnut with a heavenly soma
For my whole life I was a loner
But now I am a roamer
To where the sky is blue
To where the sky is blue
With puffy clouds and brew
Yeah where the sky is blue
Relax said the nightman
Turn of your fright man
Blowing smokerings in the air
Pretending that you're Fred Astaire
Dancing everywhere
With them smokerings in the air
And you think you're Fred Astaire
Oh you're dancing everywhere
Yeah where the sky is blue
To where the sky is blue
With puffy clouds and brew
Yeah where the sky is blue
Relax said the nightman
Turn of your fright man

Blowing smokering in the air
Pretending that you're Fred Astaire
The sky is blue
And I believe in you
Just raise your arms and fly
To where the sky is blue
