Drink you pretty

Sick of drugs and dancing feet

Sick of bars where people meet

Smell of crotch and sheets not clean

Hairy men in magazines

Every city looks the same

Running from the threat of rain

Pillow talk that's just for one

Saturday get nothing done

Lie to me

It takes less time

To drink you pretty

Lie to me

It takes less time

To drink you pretty

Human seas of apathy

Nuclear catastrophe

Jumbos crash into the ground

Governments sleep safe and sound

Mornings glisten cold and bright

Organs stolen every night

Can of beans and fast bouquet

Double jackpot give away

Lie to me

It takes less time

To drink you pretty

Lie to me

It takes less time

To drink you pretty

Hello pretty

Hello

Hello pretty

Hello

Hello pretty

Hello

Hello pretty

Lie to me

It takes less time

To drink you pretty

Lie to me

It takes less time

To drink you pretty
