Tonight's the night
I'm on a mission
Gotta job to do
To save the princess
And the universe
My mom and you
High octane kung-fu super hitman
On the side of right
Drunk on the blood of evil ninjas in a boss fight

BOSS FIGHT

I track the evil genius back into his hidden lair
I know the secret moves I'm badass and I just don't care
Infinite ammo and an overwhelming sense of good
I am the law I lay it down and it's just understood

BOSS FIGHT

Clever and methodical
Bordering on mystical
By design they reign supreme
Kill the ghost in the machine

BOSS FIGHT!
