You have her picturesYou have her picturesYou have her picturesEverywhereYou're covered in stitchesYou're covered in stitchesYou think I can't see themBut I know they're thereTake her down from the wallLet yourself fallYou can keep her frozenDorment at your coreYou can try to move onTripped by stitches come undoneYou lost your big heartYou lost your big heartYou lost your big heartBeating bareShe gave you a new startShe gave you a new startBut you knew you'd lost her to despairYour skin burns and pricklesYour skin burns and pricklesYou're skin burns and pricklesWhen she's nearYou try to play it coolYou try to play it coolYou try to play it coolBut you're filled with fearTake her down from the wallLet her goMake her yoursYou can keep her frozenDorment at your coreYou can try to move onTripped by stitches come undoneYou can try to move onTripped by stitches come undoneYou can try to
move onTripped by stitches come undoneYou can try to move onOr maybe she is the one
