

The Shys

"Call In The Cavalry"

Visit "Call In The Cavalry" on MotoLyrics.com

I woke up this morning,
I think I need a kickstand.
The rhythm of the city
got a hold of me like quicksand.

Got no money in my wallet,
so I took it from my best friend.
About a million miles an hour,
when I crash into the weekend.

Hey (chorus)

call in the cavalry

Hey (chorus)

a taste of victory

I'm gonna humor you with the act of conversation.
I've got my sunglasses on from the sleep deprivation.

Should we drop you at home,
or are you waiting for the last dance?

You know you never got the call,
'cause I didn't want the romance.

call in the cavalry
I'll take some victory
call in the cavalry
A taste of victory
call in the cavalry
I'll take some victory

Visit The Shys page on MotoLyrics.com, to get more lyrics and videos.