I recall your innocent eyes and the taste of the drinks we stole just to waste
I remember chasing our fears out of sight
Believing when nothing felt right

Maybe all we ate was just chemicals
Couldn't give a damn if the future looked bright
Stuck in the same place, the same old sights
We are young
We don't care
We're just trying to feel the high

Wasted
And I cannot sleep tonight
Wasted
Tonight is ours and we're never gonna die

I'm thinking of running, but running ain't right
With the kid on the trail tonight
Chasing my teachers and mothers and brothers, don't bother
We're telling your father

All we had to eat was just chemical Didn't give a damn if the future looked bright
Stuck in the same place, the same old sights
We are young
We don't care
We're just trying to feel the high

Wasted
That's how I feel tonight
Wasted
Tonight is ours and the light should shine too bright

Never ever gonna die
Stuck here living fine, never gonna ever die

Wasted
Wasted
Wasted
I'm wasted

Tonight is ours and we're never gonna die
Tonight is ours and we're never gonna die
Tonight is ours and we're never gonna die
