Ohh!
Ah ha!

[Verse 1:]

I grew up in the H town
Living life on the blocks
From then thats when i became unorthodox
Used to tie knots in my socks
Fill them with rocks
And i'd, swing your jaw if you gave bad looks
Now i havn't changed
Still slightly deranged
Still slightly outraged
And i feel insane
Like the, way i could take so much pain
Like i think life is real
Do you know what i mean
Ever since the days i was young
I would bust up your clicks if you run up your tongue
And, in my hood i see mans getting worked
And that man would come back and say that man got murked, yeah!
I can say that my lifes been hard
Since six i slept in a two bedroom yard
So i, keep listening, whilst full well knowing
I know where ive been
So i know where im going

[Chorus: (x2)]

You dont know where I've been
You dont know what ive been through
So how can you judge me
You dont know bout the life that I got
You dont know what its like to live in my slot
This worlds gone mad and it dont seem right
Every night i pray to god please turn out the light
That will be my one wish!
(that will be my one wish!)

[Verse 2:]

I got the HSE blood in me
I run my east side

Im the girl gully mind chick
Born in E5
And ive always rolled with man
Ever since i was young
Cause the girls acting bitchy and the man say its long
I learned how to move and stay wise on the streets
Cause my older boys showed me how a girl should roll deep
Watch my moves getting moved
Watch my moods getting moods
To survive out here
You gotta do what you do
Hustling on the corner shouting work
Cause if your grinding gotta make it work
Cause life is hard and life is real
And man nowadays dont care when they kill
Boys under sixteen
Life taking a gin

And i step back inside
What the fuck is going on
This is wrong
Tell the families of lost ones im sorry
R.I.P to babies Jessica and Holly

[Chorus: (x2)]

You dont know where I've been
You dont know what ive been through
So how can you judge me
You dont know bout the life that I got
You dont know what its like to live in my slot
This worlds gone mad and it dont seem right
Every night i pray to god please turn out the light
That will be my one wish!
(that will be my one wish!)

[Bridge:]

They dont know what im going through
They dont know what im going through
They dont know what im going through
They dont know what its like for me or you

[Verse 3:]

The hood holds loyalty
The hood holds faith
The hood holds struggle
And the hood holds rage
The hood holds haterz that wanna gruge me,
But i dont watch you, its only God that can judge me
So i dont care if you like me or hate me
Cause lately alot of heads run around crazy

But i aint here to make new friends
Shystie is just here to make a means to the ends
So ima be the reason why you step up your pace in this race
Ima take every chicks fan base
Ima be the realest girl in the game
Ima be the reason people forget your name
Cause im big in the list
Big bad in the list
And i dont care who likes me and whose pissed
Cause Shysties here and im repping it for London
Im never gonna be a pop MC you must be dumb man

[Chorus: (x2)]

You dont know where I've been
You dont know what ive been through
So how can you judge me
You dont know bout the life that I got
You dont know what its like to live in my slot
This worlds gone mad and it dont seem right
Every night i pray to god please turn out the light
That will be my one wish!
(that will be my one wish!)
