And you live by the knife,

And you don't know what it's like,

To mean the words that come out of your mouth.

You always brag about the stories of guys before me,

And how you ruined all their lives, yeah you ruined all their lives with that knife.

Did you laugh? Did they gasp for air? Did you leave them there to die slowly?

And do you sleep at night, despite of all your lies, did you tell them it was suicide?

And when you close your eyes, I hope you see my face,

And you can't erase the thought of me.

I'm dying slowly..I'm dying slowly.

And I remember every fight,

Cuz they always seemed the same,

And I always took the blame,

Cuz you were always right.

And i'm sorry I listened to all the promises you made,

Should've known you'd never change,

And you'd slam the knife straight into my back.

And you laughed, while I gasped for air,

You left me there to die slowly.

And do you sleep at night, despite of all your lies, did
you tell them it was suicide?

And when you close your eyes, I hope you see my face,

And you can't erase the thought of me.

I'm dying slowly..I'm dying slowly.

SLOWLY!

Think back.

Did you laugh?

Did they gasp for air?

Did you leave them there to die slowly?

And do you sleep at night, despite of all your lies, did
you tell them it was suicide?

And when you close your eyes, I hope you see my face,

And you can't erase the thought of me.

And do you sleep at night, despite of all your lies, did
you tell them it was suicide?

And when you close your eyes, I hope you see my face,

And you can't erase the thought of me.

I'm dying slowly..I'm dying slowly.

And I hope someday you'll find out exactly what it feels like to hold the one you love, as he slams the knife straight into your back, and he'll laugh, while you gasp for air, he'll leave you there to die slowly.
