I want a good deal
better if it's free
but I charge a lot
I want more money
don't work to work
just want more pay
cut corners here
make more that way

(meanwhile...)

i work in a large room (i work in a room that's large and bare) i'm at this workbench every day (i never miss a day)
i keep my tools very organized (I have a special place for all my tools)
this tinny radio is all i play (i love music)

i'm working on this new invention (and i'm really, really excited about it) i think it needs something extra here (in the evenings i read tool catalogues) i'm studying the grain of my workbench (i can fix anything you like) i'm humming a tune while i wait for the answer to appear when i get stuck i go fishing put in the clutch so to speak and glide i coast among the rabble and the right words in my work i take great pride

(meanwhile...)

i need more things
i need more money
don't want to work
want things for free

cut corners here
make more that way
i have no pride
the world is unfair
wah...

my shop is a long meadow in a winding landscape
in a series of elevations
with a few cows
and a babbling brook

i love to do what i love to do this excludes anything i don't like to do the pleasure is in the peace of mind the pleasure is mine
...mein bitte...
