"The Very Large Hat"

in the summertime
on the sidewalk here i see a nickel well, i... i guess i'm happening is there... is there something special you'd like me to buy you? perhaps a very, very lage hat in bold colours maybe anything you like you can be happening too good to go crazy just to go good to go crazy just to show that we're alive and that we know it takes two days to get there by train two days! two days to get there by boat it takes forever if you go by inertia no time if you don't believe in time

good to go just to go

life is a big place
makes me wonder
makes me want to know

lots of legs and lots of arms a tray... a tray of beer goes sailing by up there somewhere a great band is playing they're hot --- everybody's hot everybody's dancing tonight would you say this is high enough? no what about that... is that better? no stand on my shoulders... any improvement?

okay, okay --- what can we try?

the only thing left is... to maybe... fly higher... higher... bye summer in the yukon in the land of the midnight sun nuggets hit the counter would you like a beer?

i'll buy this round

it's the top
it's the top of the world up here is it high enough for you "i want to take you higher" have you... uh... decided yet about the hat?
