Kenny you almost made it,
I'd say you were halfway there Kenny your hands are frozen, and this is so unfair

What would you do,
given a chance to meet God?
Where did you go, why did you die,
I was a doctor, so where was I?

Kenny the moment's passed us by, moments turn to days Turning confidence away, self assuredness to shame
What would you do,
given a chance to meet God?
Where did you go, why did you die,
I was a doctor, so where was...

Where was I?
