At a crossroads in your life at a point to make a decision do you play the game for monetary gain or do you follow a code of ethics having to deal with some with the charm of a snake that speaks with a forked tongue they'll keep a casual bond to use you later on disconnect yourself and get away burn your bridges and don't look back

Burn 'em down, Burn 'em down, Burn 'em down, Gotta burn it

They don't know what it means cause all they understand is their greed they'll never know rewards of the soul and something to set yourself free think of moral wealth you're the one who's got to live with yourself you can't hide from the ties that bind you've got to burn those bridges and break those ties burn those bridges and break those ties Burn 'em down, Burn 'em down, Burn 'em down,
you're the one who's got to live with yourself, you've got to
Burn 'em down, Burn 'em down, Burn 'em down,
Gotta burn it

The problem will arise you've got to look deep down inside you're the one's who's got to live with yourself so can you smile for a price will you stay with those who will only drag you down, or do you cut the ties stand up for yourself and Hold your moral ground do you stand with those who will only rip you off or do you strike the match and don't look back and let 'em burn, let 'em burn, burn 'em down

BURN 'EM DOWN, BURN 'EM DOWN
you're the one who's got to live with yourself
you've got to
Burn 'em down, Burn 'em down, Burn 'em down, Gotta burn it
