Soul be free
Not chained in any way by petty jealousy
Soul be free
Not bound in any way by selfishness or greed

The bonds were formed over the years
Suddenly so flimsy and weak
So did they ever exist?

I just watched as my life was criticized
So I could judge who had my happiness in mind

My best interest isn't your best interest
Count me out if I'm to serve you further
My best interest isn't your best interest
Let me out if it's that one-sided

Soul be free
Not chained in any way by petty jealousy
Soul be free
Not bound in any way by selfishness or greed
Let them do what they do and make a list
Check it out and see what friends amount to shit

My best interest isn't your best interest
Count me out if I'm to serve you further
My best interest isn't your best interest
Let me out if it's that one-sided

I want the best for the souls that are close to me
I won't stand in the way of their happiness
I want the best for the souls that are dear to me
I won't stand in the way of their freedom
Their calling, their destiny

Soul be free [x4]
