Oh yeah,
oh yeah, yeah, yeah,
Said you got that good loving, good loving.
Said you got that good loving, good loving.

If it ain't the way you do your hair,
if ain't the type of clothes you wear,
It's always that something, that one thing that blows my mind.
If it ain't the colour of your eyes
or the way you give me some of your time, It's always that something, that one thing that makes me smile, yeah.

I love the little things you do for me, constantly give
enough yourself.
Seeing all the good in all the people and then return
with nothing else.
I couldn't ask for more,
you've been what I'm looking for.
Now that I've got you close,
I'll never let you go and I want you to know...

It's when you give me that good love, good love, good
love. (oh yeah) (x2)
Because of what we have is more than words that I
could say.
It's when you give me that good love, good love, good
love.

Girl I think it's time to let you know
I always keep my feelings on the low.
I'm telling you there's nothing that you'd that just flash
by (yeah)
Appreciate the love you gives to me,
I hope that you don't think that I don't see.
So many times I wonder what I'd do to make you mine.
(yeah)

I love the little things you do for me, constantly give
enough yourself.

Seeing all the good in all the people and then return
with nothing else.

I couldn't ask for more,
you've been what I'm looking for.
Now that I've got you close,
I'll never let you go and I want you to know...

It's when you give me that good love, good love, good
love. (oh yeah) (x2)

Because of what we have is more than words that I
could say.

It's when you give me that good love, good love, good
love.

See girl you had me searching far and wide yes I,
for your love I don't I never find but I,
sort of found in the nick of time and me never want
press rewind. (yeahee)

Said the things you do,
you got me going crazy for you, me telling you,
me never want to disappoint you,
see I just want to take it slow and now I want to let you know... (ooohh)

It's when you give me that good love, good love, good
love. (oh yeah) (x2)

Because of what we have is more than words that I
could say.

It's when you give me that good love, good love, good
love.

(good love, good love, good love)

(good love, good love, good love)

(good love, good love, good love)

Oh yeah.

I say you're the only want I want, you're the only want I need yeah.

Good love, good love, good love...
