Does anyone know the girl who doesn't say a thing?
Who writes songs
N' walks in the hall alone
Hiding all her feelings inside
But her lyrics explain it all
Her life's a mess
Everyone could just care less
Teachers what to understand
But it's hard for her to let them in
Those look on her face
Means she wants to run away
But she can't
'Cause she's got no where to go
She's all alone
In her own world
Blasting her music
Drowning out the world
Yes, she's just the girl
With all these problems
Doesn't have many friends
Her parent's and teachers down understand
She's miss understood
