I need a break from this world
Some space from it all
Takin' sometime to figure it all out
This place that I'm in
Is puttin' way too much pressure on me
They're allâ€¦!
Wantin' N' Waitin'
For my decision
I can't take it or make it
Without hurtin' someone

(Chorus)

So I'm runnin' away - Runnin' away
Cause I can't do this
I'm too young - N' it's taken my life away
I'm leavin' this town
There's nothing stoppin' or holdin' me down
This is my turn - to make this escape
From my world of mistakes
So I'm runnin' away
N' as long as I stay true
Don't matter where I'm runnin' to

Runnin' away
'Cause I feel like
Homes not a place
To express my song writtin' ability
Runnin' away to place
Where I can get creditability
For this work I put into this melody

All I wanted was for us to be a family
Not a dysfunctional memory
All I needed was some one to support in makin' my dreams reality
I've waited all this time
N' blocked out everyone in my mind
I built up walls no one can climb

(Chorus)

So I'm runnin' away - Runnin' away

Cause I can't do this
I'm too young - N' it's taken my life away
I'm leavin' this town
There's nothing stoppin' or holdin' me down
This is my turn - to make this escape
From my world of mistakes
So I'm runnin' away
N' as long as I stay true
Don't matter where I'm runnin' to

I took some time, but I figured out
How to protect my self
From getting' hurt again
So I blocked out everyone from gettin' in
'Cause I just wanna be free

(Chorus)
There's nothing stoppin' or holdin' me down
So I'm runnin' away
N' as long as I stay true

Runnin' away
To get out of this place
Just me N' no one else
Just want to let go N' relax
I want some time
'Cause I need to clear my mind
So let me go for now

(Chorus 2X)
So I'm runnin' away - Runnin' away
Cause I can't do this
I'm too young - N' it's taken my life away
There's nothing stoppin' or holdin' me down
So I'm runnin' away
N' as long as I stay true
