I can give you the fight,
Where no one is to blame,
You can give me the lie,
And know for to be seen.

Let the beast die indoor,
Let a fierce fight glimber.

You can be there too late,
They won't realize.
You can come back of dead,
They won't be surprised.
Let the best cry for you,
Let them fake your blind law.
And then the answer
Is good for your door.

Let a man be insane for once in a life.
Let it all be the game for the young one who're free.
Let a man be insane for once in a life.
Let it all be the game for the young one who're free.

You don't need to obey,
The rules of your game.
Anything you deny,
Nobody will mind.
Let the best cry for you,
Let them fake your blind law.

When they scream and pretend
To make yourself deaf.
Everything that he said,
Is best to forget.
Let a beast die indoor,
Let a fierce fight glimber.

And then the answer
Is good for your door.

Let a man be insane for once in a life.
Let it all be the game for the young one who're free.

Let a man be insane for once in a life.
Let it all be the game for the young one who're free.

There is a place with no prize,
No need to be polite.

Any question you pop
Will be answered on time.

There is no poor left to kill,
Nothing is making you ill.
Spend your money on nothing,
Everything is free, so go wild, go wild.

Let a man be insane for once in a life.
Let it all be the game for the young who're free.
Let a man be insane for once in a life.
Let it all be the game for the young who're free.

Let a man be insane ...
Let it all be the game ...
Let a man be insane ...
Let it all be the game for the young who're free.
