The last year has taken it's toll on you.
I've never seen you so letdown.
I just wish there was something I could do.
I know you'll pick yourself back up.
I'll be the beam that holds you up.
I know it may not seem like much,
But I know that you'll have better luck,
Just look ahead to brighter days,
I know you'll make it out of this maze.
From those you love who love you back,
We'll keep the train on this winding track.
Just know we're always here for you.
I'll be the beam that holds you up.
Keep your head up; you're not alone here.
I'll make you forget about last year.
I know the world's so insincere.
But I pray that you don't disappear.
Through all the dark times, things will get better now.
I know I can't, but if I could, I'd take the fall for us all.
Through all the situations, things will get better now.
Just know that I would die before I'd ever let you fall.
I hope these words reach out to you.
You're too strong to stay so let down.
Just know that there's nothing you can't do.
I know you'll pick yourself back up.
