i don't know what your whinning about was no party to me the worst powwow i've been to in a long time theres no women ah lets go get some beer go on a beer run i hit a tree out of no were it jumped in front of my car driving home from the powwow and looking for a bar don't need a fucking street map i don't use the streets at all saw a truck heading downtown it was an old fargo it was full of little clowns holding wonderful balloons theres a pub by the macks store we'll stop in and pick up a case so i just slow down and pull in so lets get cranked my drunken friends all the drunks together helo cold beer i love you come on join the beer run join the beer run start the car lets get going and get the hell out of here cops quickly start to chase us gun the car and slam your beer don't need a fucking genuis to know were my cold beer belongs oh no cause its all pissed out in the end and were all drunken friends drunken friends i say hello cold beer i love you come on join the beer run join the beer i say hello cold beer i love you come on join the beer run be a beer runner.
