Someone please take this knife from out of my back
You did it once, You'll do it again
And I don't want to play these games
Your words are harsh, They cause such pain
Why can't you see

I will not partake
The knife stops here with me

You spread your lies without a care in mind
Another tragic case went between the lines
In time these wounds will heal my friend Just say the words and I'll stand by your side (by your side)
Truth will stand in the end
