Hello it's been so long, since we got along
Seems like everybody looks our way
So what's it gonna be? Do you still love me?
The answer's around but it's so hard to find

If I had the book, we could take a look and try to find a way
It's harder than it looks, it doesn't come in books
Just empty hearts and castles made of sand
That wash away, wash me away from you

Just a second, what went wrong? Did I stay too long?
Seems that everything I do I regret Well, is it you or is it me? Should we just set ourselves free?
Never look back, stay a step behind

If I had the book, we could take a look and try to find a way
It's harder than it looks, it doesn't come in books
Just empty hearts and castles made of sand
That wash away, wash me away from you

Well, yesterday was yesterday
Tomorrow is another day
To question all the things we left behind

Well, yesterday was yesterday
Tomorrow is another day
To question all the things we left behind
I left you behind
