When finally it's over
It's time to start over now
That I've built myself up so strong

Don't look over your shoulder
It's just me, I'm getting older now
I think I've been here too long

It's not my time
But I'm only getting older
They're just images in my mind
My time is getting shorter

I see you in a distance
You're standing with a smile now
I haven't seen your face in so long

You say I'm good and ready
Now that I stand so steady
But I think that you were so wrong

It's not my time
But I'm only getting older
They're just images in my mind
My time is getting shorter

When you stand and take a fall
Will you find understanding at all?

It's not my time
But I'm only getting older
They're just images in my mind
My time is getting shorter
