It's a supernatural touch from a secret admirer
The melody of her voice is what brings me higher
Ya it's going to far to wanna stand by her
I just need some audio with her as supplier

[refrain x4:]

Call Me I'm waiting by the phone
Call Me if you don't want to be alone

Rain, rain drops and here I stand
With my face against the window here I am
As the clouds flow, flow in the sky
With my face against the window here am I
The desaturated blue encouraging my depression
No hope for the phone is what I'm guessing
But I'll wait, wait here just to see
If you'll pick up that phone and indulge in me

Call Me I'm waiting by the phone
Call Me if you don't want to be alone

Lights turned off in this home
I hold to the knowledge I'll be alone
At least until you pick up that phone
Give me a ring, bring me home
Here is the place, here is the place I'm living
Your voice is the place I'm driven
The sound is reverberating in my ears
The sound will hold true for many years
Don't tell me there's someone else on your line
If it were your girlfriend I'd be fine
But if you were to share your voice to another man
I couldn't take it no way I can
Here is the place the place I'm living
Your voice is the place, the place I'm driven
The sound is reverberating in my ears
That sound will hold true for many years
Call Me I'm waiting by the phone
Call Me if you don't want to be alone
