I'm so lost in love
don't want to be found
under these purple clouds
I wanna be lost in love
don't want my whereabouts at the foot of the mountain

where do I start
this mixed media art?
you climbed the charts
and took over my heart
far from a farce
if you like it I'll carve our initials in bark
my love like a spark that can flame the big bang
and nothing you can say can break my array
even if you were to say you don't feel the same way I'd wait for the day
that we'd embrace
even in the case
I'd wait in the grave
more than I need me
need her sweet deity
on my knees begging please I love you more than anything more than the first
more than the next
in sickness til death
where I'd call you collect every millisec
in hopes to express
the rest in treble clef that went over your head lemme pick up loose ends love the touch of your skin I love you more than my friends this is more than pretend

[Chorus]
She can Be My
on the lips like its
x2

there she goes
down the road
hips throwed
to and fro
went from looking quite stoned
she's a blooming rose
an angel in human clothes
truth be told my hearts been sold before I could propose

I've got nothing but reverence for her feminine presence wanna shower you with kesses from the steps of heaven atop crescent moon and set of seven stars
atop a moonlit park
forgetting where we are
carve our initials
your eyes shimmering like crystals I kiss you like I miss you which is when cupid hit you feeling like a snake bit you put our issues in the past all I ask lets make this last and don't look back

x2
