You have no remorse
Destruction excites you
And you still ride on class
And never look behind you

Don't you ever wonder why
You take all the blame
And don't you ever wonder why
You go insane

I'm so disrupted, I'll never love you
I know what I should do

The trouble is, I still miss you
You're still inside my head
The trouble is, you're still with me
But miles away again, again

I have no regrets
That I've liked you
And I said I'll forget
But in the end I could not do

Have you ever wondered why
I remain
And have you ever wondered why
I go insane

The trouble is, I still miss you
You're still inside my head
The trouble is, you're still with me
But miles away again, again

The trouble is, the trouble is this
You're still inside my head
The trouble is, you're still with me
But miles away
