Yes No Yes No Maybe More

--

Somthings mistaken

a dream taken from natures affliction im feeling so untold wake up now get here ---- but now ive got a taste, but now ive got for somthings affliction

Somthing of, Somthing i must have missed out on something i must have missed out on Somting I must have missed - out - on

As we fall astray, Trying to live through a day beside it's Never time

You can see Mt Loius?

Past the grey...

Its a new day, nothing to talk about must be one thing you can see my burden its a new day, why can u make this out it all the same its suicide its what you want little wasting throwing and coming away.

Coming away, listen to the words and make sense of the freight train and its killing me

Try to make them challange you, like (the?) fallen -----

Thats alright, x3

Im feeling so undone, im right here ----- and now weve got a taste it was nothing like ----

It was nothing like it was supposed to be

We have decayed with fear, we cant se past the fields

And we fall astray - trying to live through a death day, besides it's never time

You can see Mt Louis - past the grey...

To all those vacant callout businessmen, with ther pens

To lost serenity and sinscerity - and good health is lost in sin with woo

When all you seem to do is count on others getting worse than you, that me - Thats Your Game
Your all the same, Your all the same, your all the same,
Your all the same
Your all the same, I am the game, i am your game - I am Your Game!
So fall, yourself from, arising before so Sow your mountain, arises - before Ohhh

(Ohhhhh)
as we fall astray,
trying to live through a day?
----- Another time
