Hello, do you hate me?
You never made this easy
Your expression is hard to gauge
I can't tell what I see
Getting caught in all your traps
It's been like this for days

Free yourself from hiding
(I know that your there)
Break your walls in pieces
(Take away your glare)

Starlight in your eyes
You've played me well I've realized
I have you and you don't know
You speak now and tremble
Like cold stone you crumble
I'm tired of all your games

Free yourself from hiding
(I know that your there)
Take the chance to show me
(I was wrong again)

In time you will reveal
What you once hid
That never went away
Until that day

Free yourself from hiding
(I know that your there)
Damn your looks, I'm gone now
(Let me go my way)
