Hey now what have you got?
In your hands now just reveal
The state of your living, took more, than it was giving Take your stand against governing men Over your shoulder they sit, prowling like a wolf on it's prey

Led by the blind,
You'll be the black sheep over time
A crime
Don't repeat your structures of false design

The city is cut to it's knees
Why don't you plan your leave?
The problem was fear, yet still, to you unclear
Don't let the system forbid you to breathe Gather all your strength you can get. It's easy to let die and forget

Led by the blind,
You'll be the black sheep over time
A crime
Don't repeat your structures of false design
Now come on

Blind,
You'll be the black sheep over time
Crime
Don't repeat your structures of false design

Blind,
You are the black sheep, it's your time
Crime
Take the power, use your design
Design yeah
