Vs1 Here we are, with our backs to the wall.

Too tired to stand and fight,

Too proud to fall.

Words have all been spoken,

Lessons been learned.

No need for sad goodbyes,

That stones better left unturned...

Chorus

Love just rocks and rolls away,

Nothing left to do or say.

We can lay it down,

But we can't make it stay.

Love just rocks and rolls away,

Love just rocks and rolls away...

Vs2

The fire between us, has burned down low.

Sweet emotions lost, nowhere to go.

In desperation, we could hold on,

But foolish pride can't help, When the passions gone.

Chorus

Love just rocks and rolls away,

Nothing left to do or say.

We can lay it down,

But we can't make it stay.

Love just rocks and rolls away,

Love just rocks and rolls away.
