VS1

I see you got you a real bad case of blue,
Tellin' them big ole lies like she don't bother you,
Blame it on economy, Blame it on your boss,
But I can see you're job ain't the only thing you've lost.

Chorus

Well, it musta been a woman,
Done this thing to you,
Something with blue eyes,
Stands about five foot two,
Whiskey aint strong enough,
To make you this blue,
Musta been a woman,
Done this thing to you.

Vs2

Well, I've seen down and out,
But you must be the worst.
Wreakin' that pickup truck,
Couldn't have brought you that much hurt.
Them big ole tears you're crying,
Tell the truth to me,
She locked you up in heartbreak jail,
And threw away the key.

Chorus

Well it musta been a woman,
Done this thing to you.
Something with blue eyes,
Stands about five foot two.
Whiskey ain't strong enough,
To make you this blue,
Musta been a woman,
Done this thing to you,
Musta been a woman,
Done this thing to you...
