You're honest
About what you think of the American dream
And I promised
We won't always be living on our knees

But the cash don't come so easy
And the bills build up so quickly
And I never really dreamt of money
And my friends always found that so funny

But I
Dream of lovers on the open road
I wanna set my heart on fire
Cos darlin' there's no limit when you lose control
It's that last flick of light
That sets my heart of fire
You know that you do
You set my heart on fire
You know that you do
You set my heart on fire

And I say let it rain
And I would be your millionaire without a pound to my name
We'll be trying
We may not get anywhere but it wont stop us smiling

They may think we're crazy
But I'll just keep explaining
We're not doing it for the limelight
It's the idea that I can choose what my life's like

Dream of lovers on the open road
I wanna set my heart on fire
Cos darlin' there's no limit when you lose control
It's that last flick of light
That sets my heart of fire
You know that you do
You set my heart on fire
You know that you do
You set my heart on fire

I want to feel like love surrounds me
I want to feel every single flick of fire

Dream of lovers on the open road
I wanna set my heart on fire
Cos darlin' there's no limit when you lose control
It's that last flick of light
That sets my heart of fire
You know that you do
You set my heart on fire
You know that you do
You set my heart on fire
You know that you do
You set my heart on fire
