When I cry I begin to feel the pain inside my heart
I don't realize there's nothing I can hold on to But now
I cry to just let the tears fall freely from my eyes
Despite the pain I still believe I'd love again

And though love has brought me down
Love is still around
Finding all its ways to those whose hearts are brave enough to try
Coz love is always ready to defy
All unwilling things that this life may bring
Though at times may seem to lose its faith
And I will face them all
But love is still my reason to go on

Once I ask if there's something good in thinking 'bout
the past
When it makes me hurt
But think of all the things I've learned
So now
I might move on with my life and leave those things behind
I will soon forget the painful faults I still regret

And though love has brought me down
Love is still around
Finding all its ways to those whose hearts are brave
enough to try
Coz love is always ready to defy
All unwilling things that this life may bring
Though at times may seem to lose its faith
And I will face them all
But love is still my reason to go on

I believe in love just like the sun that comes out shining
When the rain is done it builds my faith again

And though love has brought me down
Love is still around
Finding all its ways to those whose hearts are brave

enough to try
Coz love is always ready to defy
All unwilling things that this life may bring
Though at times may seem to lose its faith
And I will face them all
But love is still my reason to go on

Love is still my reason to go on

To go on....
